

Eduardo Vidal

The theme I picked was Language School. The platform is structured around different languages and different levels. This choice was done because people may be at different levels on fluency. There are also many different languages to learn. It is also structured in a way to make it easier for individuals to register for the classes in the language of their choice.